

Applying your knowledge - Example 1

Key information Notes

Who is the task for?	My manager
What information do they need?	She needs a company information sheet for an exhibition.
When does the task need to be completed?	The exhibition is on 6th May. However, my colleagues are travelling to the exhibition on 5th May, so I will need to have everything ready to give to them on 4th May.
What information needs to be included?	A double-sided A4 size information sheet, to include details of the hotel facilities, upcoming special offers, pictures of guest rooms and contact information.
Where will the information be used?	The information sheet will be printed out to give to people who visit our stand at the exhibition.
Is there a budget?	I have no money to complete the task but it is not needed as I can use facilities at work.
What resources do you have available?	Office facilities at work, such as computer with Microsoft Word and other relevant programs, workspace and a printer. I have all the resources I need to complete this task.
